

In The Field

News for Victorian Vegetable Growers

29 Oct 2015

Luis Gazzola Awarded Life Membership

Sincere congratulations are extended to Luis Gazzola who was granted a VGA–Vic Life membership at the 2015 Annual General Meeting.

In presenting Luis his with life membership, VGA president David Wallace thanked Luis for his tireless, enthusiastic and positive contribution to the VGA and Victorian Vegetable Industry over many years.

Luis was a past president of VGA–Vic for 7 years and a director on the board of AUSVEG for nearly as long.

Luis has sat on numerous committees and attended countless meeting to provide input and outcomes on behalf of the Victorian Vegetable industry.

Luis Gazzola receives award from David Wallace

Although Luis has retired now, he still plays an active role with his sons Paul, Colin and Andrew who run the farms at Somerville (161ha) and at Boneo (105ha), producing a range of premium Asian Vegetables, Broccoli, Carrots, Celery, Cos and Iceberg lettuce for markets across Australia.

VGA–Vic would like to acknowledge both Luis and Gloria for the many years of service representing the interests of VGA members and the Vegetable Industry.

"In The Field" is published by VGA–Victoria
(Vegetable Growers' Association of Victoria Inc.)
PO Box 445,
Bay Street, Port Melbourne, Vic, 3207

Jointly funded by VGA–Victoria and DEPI Victoria

Editor: Ken Orr

T 03 9687 4707

F 03 9687 4723

M 0428 502 936

E ken.orr@vgavic.org.au

